Janice Chandler

A profile of Janice, in her own word

I am married to David and we have two adult sons.

At Auckland University I studied Anthropology, Biology and Ancient History as part of my B.A. degree. My interests include collecting textiles and clothing of various distinctive ethnic designs. As well I collect items of tribal jewellery. Both my husband and I also enjoy interacting with different groups of indigenous people and observing how they have adapted their way of life to their environments in the different countries we visit.

I am a life member of the Auckland Institute and Museum and I also belong to the Costume and Textile Association of New Zealand.
